Board members adopted the 1958-59 calendar as follows: Sept. 8, faculty meeting; Sept. 8, 9, 10, freshman orientation; Jan. 22, first semester ends; Jan. 27, faculty meeting; Jan. 28, registration for second semester; May 28, school closes; June 9-August 7, summer session.

Seventy-Three Try Proficiency Test

Seventy-three students took the English proficiency test last semester, with sixty-one passing and twelve failing.

Each student is required to pass the English proficiency test before he graduates. The test is given once a semester and requires students to write what they recall about a film which has been shown. The test is designed to evaluate the students' usage of grammatical construction and expression of ideas.

Each student is required to take the test after he has acquired 45 hours of credit.

Each test is graded by five faculty members and requires an acceptance of at least three of the five. Students whose tests are not accepted are required to have additional work in English.

Dorsey Band To Return Here

With the Jimmy Dorsey orchestra, directed by Lee Castle, and the coronation of the 1958 Tower Queen as feature attractions, the annual Tower Dance will be held Friday, February 21, at the National Guard Armory, from 9 to 1.

Don Beeson is over-all chairman of the dance. Gary Williams and Carolyn Boner are in charge of publicity, and Donnie Kixmiller, Patty New, and Wayne Anderson are in charge of decorations for the formal, non-corsage dance.

Teachers Receive Doctors' Degrees

Doctors' degrees have been granted recently to two of the faculty members in the humanities department, Dr. H. A. Galley and Dr. T. M. Barker.

Dr. Galley received his Ph. D. from the University of California in Los Angeles. His dissertation is entitled "The London Society and Cape Government from 1799 to 1828."

Dr. Barker completed work toward his Ph. D. in September, 1957, at the University of Minnesota. His dissertation is on modern European history. His subject is "The Historical Development of the Corinthian Slovene Question."

Professors to Include Book Review in Program

A. A. U.P. will meet February 10, at 5:30 p.m. in the Lakeview Room of the Union. The book ONE-FOURTH OF THE NATION by Professor Paul Woodring will be reviewed.

Dinner will precede the business meeting and program.

Dramatists Choose Cast for Mystery

Cast members were chosen last week for "Night Must Fall," a three-act mystery to be presented by the drama department March 12 and 13. Those chosen are Bill Lippincott, Lord Chief Justice; Joan Setzer, Mrs. Bramson; Pat Murphy, Nurse Libby; Marjorie Canon, Olivia Grayne; Dan DeMott, Hubert Laurie; Kay Reid, Mrs. Terence; Barbara Julius, Dora Parkoe; Francis Francis Williams, Inspector Belsize; and Carl Redmon, Dan.

Rehearsal schedules were given out at a meeting of the cast Monday night.

Written by Emlyn Williams, English actor and playwright, "Night Must Fall" is a psychological thriller, the study of a cold-blooded killer whose deliberate and incredibly arrogant machine-like movements prove as thrilling as those viewed in Climax and Playhouse 90.

Emlyn Williams wrote the play, directed it, and played its leading part when it opened in the 1940's in England.

Snow, Ice Limit Debate Tournament

Seven colleges were represented at the First Annual Debate Tournament at Northwest Missouri State College January 25. Three states were represented as the attendance was cut considerably by the snow and icy weather.

Kirksville's Northeast Missouri State, Creighton University at Omaha, and Ottawa University all had unbeaten teams representing their schools.

Four other teams were present from Baker University at Baldwin, Kansas, Central Missouri State at Warrensburg, Nebraska State Teachers from Peru, and Northwest Missouri State College.

Student Increase Is 192 to 1,548 Since Spring, 1945

Shattered again are the enrollment records of this college! The 1958 spring semester has a complement of 1,548 students, once more increasing the total from year to growing year.

Today's enrollment is 182 more than that of this time last spring and 790 more than that of 10 years ago, more than doubling the 1948 enrollment of 759.

Work Toward M. A. Degrees Included in today's figures are 25 students who are doing graduate work toward masters' degrees at the College.

Far different was the enrollment story of 13 years ago. In 1945 there were only 192 regular students enrolled in the College at the beginning of the spring quarter.

Cadets Enrolled

By sending 143 V-12 cadets for instruction, the Navy saved the day, making a total of 335 students on the campus. There had been concern about keeping the College going because of the toll that the war years wreaked on the college-going population, but the V-12 program, begun in 1942, continued to help.

Short course students numbered 79, but they registered for a five-week, late spring session.

Today, as never before in the College's history, the enrollment reflects an increasing interest in higher education as well the results of a growing population, giving rise to more facilities, greater opportunities, and ultimately—perhaps—a better citizenry.

Three Attend Meetings Held in Kansas City

Dr. J. W. Jones, president of the College, was in Kansas City Saturday attending a meeting of the state college presidents.

He was accompanied by Everett W. Brown, director of field services, and James Johnson, librarian.

Dr. Jones and Mr. Johnson attended a luncheon and lecture at Rockhurst College. Featured speaker was President Paul C. Reinert, St. Louis University, who lectured on how state colleges may use microfilm libraries of the Vatican.

Famed Budapest String Quartet Sparks Schedule This Semester

Two return engagements are among the series of assemblies planned for the 1958 Spring Semester. Most of the contracts are completed, but the tentative cloud hovers over a few scheduled programs.

Old World reverie will blanket classroom blues when the Budapest String Quartet is introduced as the first assembly of the semester on Monday, February 17.

Religious Emphasis Week is scheduled for the first week in March.

John Beaufort, renowned drama critic, will be on stage the following Monday, March 10, for a return engagement. One of the more widely sought-after opinion makers, Mr. Beaufort haunts the off-Broadway beats and reports to such publications as the London Times and the Christian Science Monitor.

NWMSO's own drama department is planning a production for March 12. Mark Twain will live again as Hal Holbrook, noted authority on Samuel Clemens, portrays the Man from Hannibal in his famous characterizations of the Missouri humorist, at a later date.

Parents' Day Assembly is scheduled for April 3, the Thursday before Easter. On April 16, members of the music department will present their annual spring production, still in the early planning stages.

Norman Cousins, editor of The Saturday Review, will be presented on stage on April 22. Mr. Cousins, a successful author in his own right, wrote "Asian Report" and "Who Speaks for Man?" Another return engagement with a popular program is the internationally known Lord's Puppets. Their entertaining act is scheduled for April 28.

Honors Day, the last assembly of the semester, is tentatively set for May 10.

Getting to the Center of Things

Ask any student of geometry and he will tell you that a circle has only one center. Ask anyone who has given the matter much thought and he will tell you that for a person to have a "well-rounded" life, he can successfully have only one real center of interest—never two or three.

Each person must decide whether the center of his circle of interest shall be business or social activities. No one will deny that both are important, but when social life begins to move into the center of the circle and drive out the business of being a student, the circle may become lop-sided.

Now, the beginning of a new semester of college, is a good time for the student to resolve that the center of his life will be the business of acquiring an education. His social life will find its place somewhere on the edge of the circle.

The Union Is Open to You

Have you been getting those shut-up or get-out stares from people in the Library?

When you study in groups or discuss some problem, you annoy others around you. Why bore other students by running through your skit in the Library? Go to the Lakeview or Gold Room in the Union lounge, and if they are unoccupied, you will be completely free.

On the second floor of the Union, comfortable chairs wait for you. Why not enjoy this pleasant, quiet living room away from home?

Current magazines and newspapers are always available in the lounge. A piano is there, and according to Mrs. L. G. Bladt, Dean of Women, there are several "Liberace's" who take advantage of this piano.

For a place to relax and talk in groups, a finer place than the lounge cannot be found on the campus.

Students

Your Carelessness Is Showing!

Although the Union is the "living-room" of the College, it should not be mistreated. Persons who would not think of cluttering up their home don't seem to mind how they treat the Bearcats' Den. Sometimes it really looks like a "den" instead of a neat, comfortable room.

If patrons of the Den would refrain from dropping trash on the floor, they would find that they would have a much more pleasant place in which to eat and relax, and visitors would receive a much better impression of the College. Of course it is hard to play cards on a table covered with glasses and paper, but there are trash cans for paper, and a trip to the counter with a few plates, cups, and glasses will never hurt anyone.

Please!

They're Talking About . . .

THEY'RE TALKING ABOUT . . . Have Books, Will Study—a program to win the Number One rating on the campus channel . . . warheads from 20 fathoms beneath the sea—the reported ability of Soviet subs to deliver nuclear missiles to Anywhere, USA . . . a call from a "doll" for Gary Ewing.

THEY'RE TALKING ABOUT . . . the confused, new faces wandering about the halls, dodging pipes, crates, and unperturbed contractors while looking for an illusive classroom . . . red steel skeletons sprouting from the school landscape, teeming traffic, and a cluttered campus.

THEY'RE TALKING ABOUT . . . Urnest Remingway's Puller's Surprise winning novel, "The Moon Rises, Too" . . . the merger of Bowes and Ogden into one corporation; a happy union of North and South—from bow and arrow and rattlesnakes to the altar and a tying contract, Harry does it again!

THE COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will respect and obey the College laws and do our best to inculcate a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

Tower Choir Tours Surrounding Area On Annual Journey

Seven towns were to have been included in the recent tour of the Tower Choir, which began Sunday, January 19, and was to end Tuesday, January 21. The heavy snow storm, however, kept the group in Kansas City Monday night, and made it impossible for them to visit the last three towns of the tour.

Members of the choir began their tour with a concert in Mound City Sunday. Monday, performances were given in Faucet, Dearborne, and Platte City. At 9:30 p.m., the choir presented a radio program on WDAF in Kansas City.

After spending the night in Kansas City, the thirty-nine members were to have appeared in Liberty, Lawson, and Gower on Tuesday. The choir returned to the college later in the week.

Give Three Numbers

Numbers presented in the concert were the following: "Hymn to St. Cecilia," by Benjamin Britten; "The Nutcracker Suite," by Peter Tchaikovsky; and "Brooklyn Baseball Cantata," by George Kleinsinger.

Soloists for the "Hymn to St. Cecilia" were Marjorie McClure, Emilie Benedict, Peggy Guthrie, Don Herren, and George Chaney. Karen Kinnick and Sue Lynn were the dancers for "The Nutcracker Suite." Members of the cast for the "Baseball Cantata" were Charles Elliott, Robert Williamson, George Chaney, Nancy Wharton, and Stephen Knott.

Chaperons on the tour were Everett Brown, director of field services, Mrs. Faye Sherman, secretary to the dean of faculty, and Dr. John Smay, chairman of the music department. Mr. Gilbert Whitney is the director of the Tower Choir.

Presents January Assembly

Thursday morning, January 9, the Choir presented an assembly for the student body. The same program was presented as that used on the tour.

While the choir members were changing from formals and tuxedos to sports clothes, George Green played two numbers on the piano.

During "The Nutcracker Suite," Shirley and Rozanne Stephens, high school students from Shenandoah, Iowa, presented a dance.

Herren Heads Choir

Officers of the Tower Choir are Don Herren, president; Charles Elliott, vice-president; Suzanne Anno, secretary; and Robert Williamson and Katherine Clark, librarians. Accompanists include Karen Kinnick, Shirley Noelck, Joan Setzer, and Sharon Pittsenbarger.

Section leaders include Kathleen Hopple and Joan Setzer, sopranos; Suzanne Anno and Peggy Guthrie, altos; Don Herren, tenor; and Charles Elliott and Gerald Jones, basses.

Campus Briefs

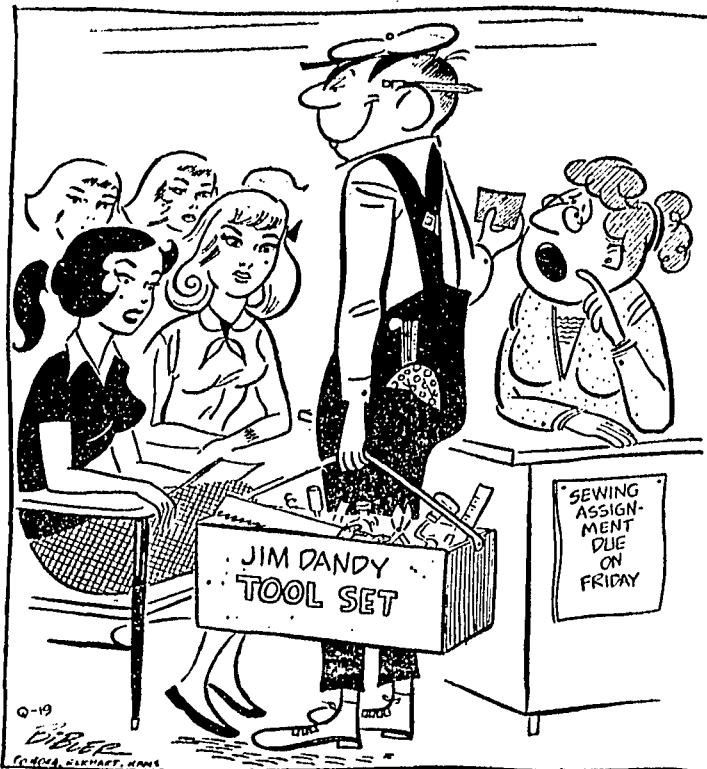

Notice all the grim faces going around the halls? The people wearing the sober (not that kind of sober) faces are probably some of the many who got a grade or two lower than what they thought they deserved. Many are wondering when certain teachers, who award I's and U's generously, are going to become "human."

Mr. W. T. Garrett is wearing a grim face nowadays, too; last Tuesday his office chair suddenly collapsed, and down went the chair and Mr. Garrett and up went the sales of new equipment. Who will be next?

Enrollment shoots up at N.W. M.-S.C. as 1,518 students have enrolled and more are expected. It seems that the new dormitories and the new classroom building are being built just in time. Many classes are overflowing and some students believe that if they learn their subjects in no other way, they may learn by osmosis . . . Well it's a thought.

Do you know what a policeman's ball is. Give up? It's a cop hop.

To end this intellectual article with a quotation from Fenwick Babbitt: "If it doesn't make any difference, what difference does it make?"

Photography Contest Is Open to Students

District Officer Urges Seniors to Take Test For Federal Service

Harry Kasper, district manager of the Social Security Administration office in St. Joseph, urges senior students to qualify for career jobs in the government by taking Federal Service Entrance Examinations.

Open to both men and women, the examination will be held in St. Joseph and Kansas City on two Saturdays—March 8 and May 10. Upon graduation, those who pass the test will be considered for appointment by a number of Federal agencies, including the Social Security Administration.

Starting salaries range from $306 to $377 monthly for most positions. In some specialized positions appointment can be made at a higher pay scale. An applicant who passes the test may designate the particular area in which he would prefer work, the manager said. In addition to job security, the Federal service offers a liberal retirement plan, low cost group insurance, and a generous vacation and sick leave system.

Anyone wishing to take the examination should complete Civil Service Form 5000-AB, which may be obtained from the Field Service office in the College, from the Social Security office in St. Joseph, or from most post offices. Further information about the job opportunities can be found in Announcement No. 25, which can be obtained from the Civil Service Commission in St. Louis.

Students Increase Reading Skills In Fall Semester

About 180 students had classes in the Reading Center in the College Library during the fall semester, states Mr. Ralph F. Cater, of the Reading Center. Of these students, about 90 per cent were freshmen.

Building of word power, how to outline, increasing reading speed and comprehension, and how to study for examinations were the main topics undertaken in class. To increase reading speed and comprehension, a machine called the Reading Rateometer was used. By using this machine, students determined number of words read per minute and their comprehension of the material.

Varied Material Is Used

Light material such as magazines and heavier material such as text books were used by the classes in the building of reading skills. Each class met once a week, but the student had to practice about twenty minutes a day on his own in order to get full benefit from the class.

Many students who have taken this course have increased their rate of comprehension as much as 20 per cent to 30 per cent. At the same time, they have increased their words per minute as much as 30 per cent to 50 per cent, and some even more.

Three Sections Meet

Mr. Cater has three sections meeting this semester—at four and five o'clock on Mondays, and at four o'clock on Wednesdays. All interested in building their reading skills are invited to come to this class, which meets in Room 2 in the College Library.

All freshmen who have been scheduled to take the reading improvement program should see Mr. Ralph F. Cater. If in doubt as to the reading requirement, they should see either Mr. Cater or Dean Koerble.

Grades will be withheld until the reading requirements are met.

Lise Bredesen Sends Greetings from Norway

Some of those receiving cards were Mr. R. P. Foster, Mr. Everett Brown, Mrs. John Mauzey, Kay Martindale, Rose Mary Meyer, Pat Elder, Peggy Lockridge, and Marilyn Cox.

Cat-quick actions of the Maryville Bearcats won the home game Friday night from the Rolla Miners 74-73, their third victory.

In their own den of battle, the Bearcat hosts ran the rangier Miners rubbery-legged with fatigue.

Bearcats Gain Margin

Obviously enraged over a previous drubbing suffered at the hands of the Miners, the Bearcats went out to prevent a repetition. Though the score was tied twice in the first quarter, Maryville gained a 24-20 margin in the waning seconds of that period. Powell and Goff accurately fed the ball to their mates so as to increase their advantage to 37-28 at halftime.

However, Miner sophomores Gene Brenning and John Sturm gave the whole picture a gold tint during the second half, as they scored 15 and 12 points, respectively. Their combined sharp-shooting and rebounding took the claws out of the Bearcat defense, as Rolla surged ahead in 7 minutes, 49-47.

The Score Six Times

From then on, the score was tied six times, making ball possession a must. Tension reached a height with 7 minutes and 30 seconds remaining in the game as Maryville stalwart, Partridge, was expelled.

Rolla connected with both their charity shots to make the score 59-58 for the Miners. Then for an eternal three minutes the contest turned into a tragedy of errors as neither quintet could hold the ball long enough to score. Bearcats Ray and Jackson came through with timely rebounds to keep them within close range of the Miners.

One minute remained in the game as Miner Rony Sharp fouled out. The score was then 69-67 in favor of Rolla, as Frosh Larry Rix came in for Sharp. Larry was in the game to score Rolla's last 3 points. Then with 10 seconds remaining, the score was knotted up at 73 all.

In 10 Seconds, Jackson—

Finally, Jackson, Maryville center, was fouled while rebounding a missed shot. The poised Bearcat calmly connected, and time ran out before the ball was in play.

Coach Gregory credited his men with making an "all out team effort in winning the game." Indeed it was, as Marland Ray, Charlie Goff, and Dick Powell each made 14 points, while Jackson and Don Eklund each scored 13.

League Leading Bears to Invade Bearcatland for Saturday Game

Northwest Missouri State College's Bearcats take the court against Springfield's high flying Bears Saturday night, February 8, at 8 p.m., on the Maryville court. This will be the second meeting of the two teams. Springfield took the first encounter 94-60 on their home floor.

Jack D. McCracken, Basketball Star, Dies in Colorado

Jack D. McCracken, 46, a former Maryville all-American and six times national A. A. U. all-star basketball player died at his home in Denver, Colorado, Jan. 5. He had suffered a heart attack a year ago and had had the flu a week before his death. He is survived by his two sons, one in high school and the other serving in the army.

"Jumping Jack," as he was known by athletic circles throughout the United States, came to Maryville from Oklahoma City with Coach Hank Iba, former member of the College faculty, and Ryland Milner, now a member of the college faculty.

Under the guidance of Coach Henry Iba at this college, McCracken received All-American honors in 1930 and 1931. After college he played on three A. A. U. national championship teams and was voted one of the top five on this championship circuit six times. In 1943, he was player-coach for the Phillips 66 team that won the national championship.

McCracken placed Maryville on the national college map. His achievements were many, but perhaps his biggest achievement was being selected to the Helms Foundations Hall of Fame last November.

field took the first encounter 94-60 on their home floor.

Rolling up an impressive string of victories, the Bears seem a sure bet for the MIAA championship and may qualify for one of the top spots in the NCAA small-college basketball tournament.

Taylor Leads Bears

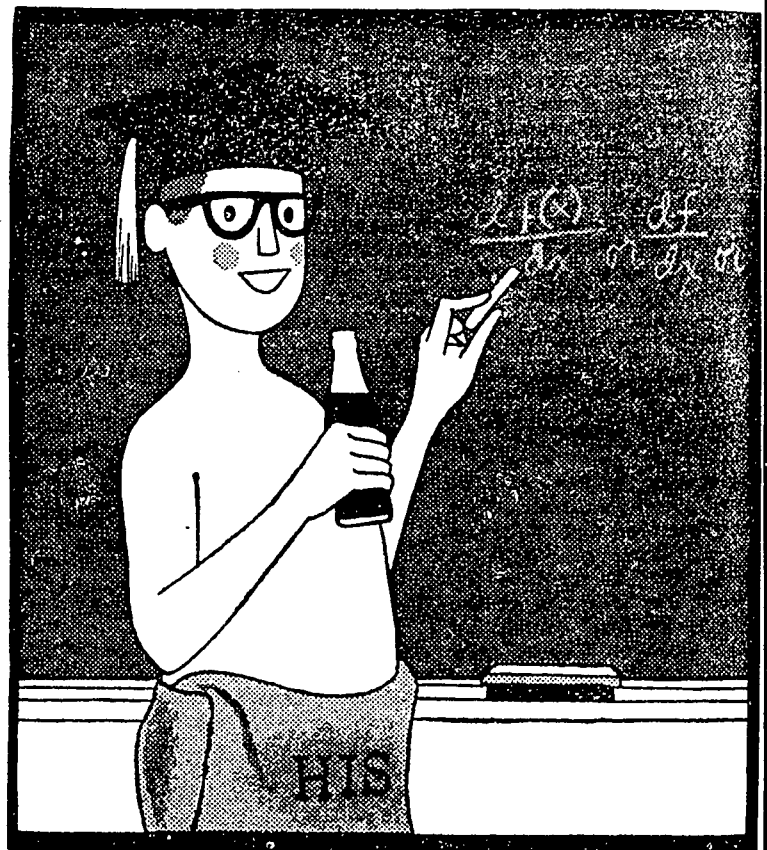

Responsible for the elite spot the Bears now hold are Charles Taylor, 6'6"; Jack Israel, 6'5"; Max Oldham, 6'4"; and Bill Wynn, 6'8". Taylor is leading the team in scoring in the conference with a 16.3 average, but trails Israel in all games with an 11.3 point average. Israel has a 14.8 conference average and an over-all average in and out of the conference with 11.5 and 11.3, respectively, while Wynn makes up the other fourth of the double figures with an 11.5 average in conference play and 11.2 for all games played.

On the other side of the ledger, Marland Ray, Bearcat ace, relinquished his conference scoring lead to John Sturm of Rolla as Ray dropped one-tenth of a point behind with a 22.4 average.

Marland Leads

However, Marland continues to lead the league in all games played with a point average of 20.9 per game. Helping out in the scoring department is Leland Jackson, with 14.4 in the conference and 11.6 over-all averages.

Maryville will be looking for an upset victory, and the Bears of Springfield will be trying to prolong their winning way.
